Students' Day-Selection of a Faculty from Among the Mindents.

According to the usual custom of the Le Moyne school, as explained in the appended slip from the catalogue of the institution, to-morrow is "students" day" at LeMoyne. The following faculty was elected by the school. They will have entire charge of the school during the day: Principal, H. F. Mitchell; preceptress, Laura Barker; teacher of grammar and geography, Mary Gillespie; music teacher, Minnie L. Williams; teacher of intermediate department, Estella Cairnes; teacher of primer department, Emma Reynolds; teacher of needlework, Graftie

THE STUDENTS' DAT. One day, or more—as is thought best—in each term, the regular instructors retire, and give the care of the institution into the hands of the students. From among their number a temporary principal, preceptress and teachers are chosen, who take entire charge of the school and conduct its exercises. Tie object of thus putting the institution under the care of the students is to test their moral culture, their executive ability and their devotion to their work. Thus far this day's work has been most successfully performed, the best results obtained, and the day is held by all to be the most profitable one of the term.
